Declares Present Condition Is Too Bad to Be Characterized as Anarchistic; Says He Was Legally Elected, but Misguided American Officials Hindered Him in Trying to Restor e Peace and Order.

TEW TORK, April 16.—"My country cannot be conquered. Sixtoen-million of men, women and by what I do. I know I am not to blame for the death of Mr. Madero. Time and history will do me justice.

children would have to be killed before Mexico could submit to an invader," asserted Gen. Victoriano Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, in a signed statement given out here to the Associated Press last night.

The honds of the Washington administration, he declared, had not been fair to Mexico; and been misfed by false statements, and if they had been in Mexico for 29 days, "they would have changed their theoretical, erromous ideas." Had it not been for the emburgo on the exportation of arms from this country, Gen. Huerta indicated that his army would have prevailed over those opposed to it.

The former previsional president reliterated the assertion which he made when he left Mexico last year, that he had resigned from his position only because he hoped to bring peace to his country.

He provided out that in the eight country.

He pointed out that in the eight form months chapsed since that date, the situation in Mexico had become "too sad for me to analyze deeply."

Anarchy is too soft a word to call it," he said. Mexico would eventually be saved, but by a Mexican. Whe that would be, he did not know. Jen. Huerta denied that he would zo to San Antonio. Texas, or any other point near the Mexico border.

Discussing the death of Madero, he said:

"Mexico border."

Discussing the death of Madero, he said:

Discussing the death of Madero, he said:

That is a professional secret. Lawyers have secrets; doctors have secrets.

Son a solder, why shouldn't a soldier have secrets? It is not through friend-ship for any one I am withholding the information. It is a professional duty. The time will suon come when my name is vindicated, and as Gen. Lee said of Gen. Jackson, the world will any of me that I stood like a stane will, subtiting to is nominy and the insults that have been braped upon me.

Was Not False to Madero.

Gen. Huerta straightoned up, his eyes flashed, and, bringing his clenched fists against his breast, he replied to the question: This yen betray the continues of Madero.

The swear it. I was in no way responsible for his death. It has been one of the big tortures of my life. I am sorry I have to keep the secret. Although I am of a different race than yen gentlamen, I am a man.

Crimes Against Foreigners.

"Infortunately, and for our shame, numerous crimes have been committed against foreigners on Mexican soil during the last four years and a haif. Englishmen were consumity assuminated, more than 300 Chinaman were brutally simplicated in Torreou; German women were brutally violated in Covadonya; Spanlards were butchaved in Atenciago, and other places; foreign and native ministers of the church were shamelessly mistreated, but the crimes were committed before or after my time, or by rebols in territory that I slid not control. These are the results of the anarchial propagands of Mr. Madero and his followers.

Vandelism and Anarchy.

of the pairfolic Mexican army, humiliated and maltroated by Mr. Maddro, revolted and took possession of the government's clindel," he said in his signed statement.

"After the streets had run with blood for 10 days, the foreign diplomatic representatives asked Mr. Maddro to resign. He did not want to accede it their wishes. Then some heads of the army, incited by our senators to put an end to that anguished situation, placed Mr. Madero under arrest.

"Our congress and our senate and our supreme court of justles, complying with all requisites of the constitution of our country, named me as the constitution of our country, named me as the constitutional needed in the penitentiary, died an unnatural feath. In the opinion of some of the positic in this country I am hismed as aving taken a part in executing him, never have tried to shirk any responsibilities and anything I ever did was fone openly.
